

Child Support Agreements

Kim Wilson & Co can assist with every aspect of Child Support Agreements, helping you protect and safeguard your children's future.

All parents have a legal obligation to financially support their children, usually until either their 18th birthday or the completion of full time undergraduate education.

Kim Wilson & Co can assist you to reach an agreement on the matter of Child Support. These agreements may either be unregistered, or registered with the Child Support Agency.

The amount payable in Child Support is determined by assessing the monies required to provide for the running of a home and for the welfare of a child or children, whilst taking into account the financial means of both parents.

Our Family and Divorce Lawyers can assist with every aspect of this process from the negotiation and/or Mediation required to reach an agreement; to making the application for an assessment directly to the Child Support Agency and the subsequent maintenance reviews (if required) or to drafting a Child Support Agreement.

To book your confidential Family Law consultation call (08) 6380 3900

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Child Support?

Child Support is the financial support paid to contribute toward the costs of caring for the children of the relationship.

Do I have to pay Child Support?

The Law states that both parents have a duty to support their children financially.

Can I receive Child Support?

The income of you and your partner is considered equally when a Child Support Assessment is calculated. The Child Support Agency provides information to assist you with the amount of Child Support required to be paid.

Is Child Support and Spousal Maintenance different?

Spousal Maintenance and Child Support are different. Child Support is payment made for financial support to children. Spousal maintenance is payment made by one spouse to another to provide for their financial needs.

This material is produced for the law firm of Kim Wilson & Co and is intended to provide our clients and other people who access it general information on our Firm and various legal topics.

The content of this document does not constitute legal advice and should not be relied upon as legal advice.

Before acting or relying upon any content of this documents you should seek legal or other appropriate professional advice.

The use of this document and the information contained in it is not intended to create nor does it create a solicitor-client relationship between any person and Kim Wilson & Co.